

Cecil College and The George Washington University

Associate of Science in Nursing to Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Admissions

- For students who have obtained an ADN from CC and desire a BSN, admission to the School of Nursing will be guaranteed if the students have satisfied the following requirements:
 - Obtained an ADN from CC;
 - Graduated with a cumulative 3.0 GPA in the ADN as well as an overall GPA of 3.0; and
 - Have completed the required prerequisite coursework for the BSN program (see below)

Requirements for the Program

- The prerequisites for eligibility for students, who have obtained an ADN from CC and desire a BSN, are as follows and further outlined in Attachment I:
 - Each applicant must complete the ADN to include general education coursework with grades of C or better (C- grades and lower do not transfer) and a minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA. Prior to starting the BSN program; and
- The General education courses are required and will be completed in the ADN or taken in addition to courses required by the ADN
- George Washington University requires licensure (NCLEX-RN) prior to or within the first semester of the program.

Guaranteed Admissions Agreement Pathway

- Obtain:
 - Associate's Degree in Nursing with an overall GPA of 3.0
 - Nursing GPA 3.0
 - Pass the NCLEX prior to or within the first semester of the program
- Provide the following information
 - Transcripts from all higher education institutions attended
 - Two letters of recommendation
 - Active and unencumbered nursing license
 - Statement of Purpose
 - Current of resume
- Use the following to ensure you have completed the following prerequisites
 - Anatomy (3-4 Credits) - BIO 208
 - Microbiology (3-4 Credits) – BIO 200
 - Statistics (3 Credits) – MAT 127
 - English (6 Credits) – EGL 101 & EGL 102
 - Total 84 Credits