

Undocumented Student Affidavit for Tuition Rate Based on Maryland High School/GED Graduation For Eligible Undocumented Students

As an open-admission institution, Cecil College grants admission to all students regardless of citizenship. Maryland Senate Bill 167 provides the opportunity for some non-U.S. citizens who attended high school in Maryland to receive in-county tuition.

ELIGIBILITY:

I, the undersigned, am applying for a Nonresident Tuition Exemption for eligible Maryland high school graduates at Cecil College and I declare the following:

1. I attended a public or nonpublic high school in Maryland for at least 3 academic years not earlier than the 2005-2006 school year;
2. I graduated from a public or nonpublic high school in Maryland or received the equivalent of a high school diploma from the State not earlier than the 2007-2008 school year;
3. I am enrolling in the community college that serves the same jurisdiction as the high school from which I graduated; in the case of a GED student, I am enrolling in the community college that serves the same jurisdiction of the high school I last attended;
4. I, or my parent or legal guardian, have filed Maryland income tax returns:
  - i. annually, while I attended a high school in Maryland; and
  - ii. annually during the period, if any, between graduation from high school and enrolling in a community college; and
  - iii. I will continue to submit proof of tax filings each year I am enrolled at the community college;
5. I am enrolling at this institution not later than 4 years after graduating from high school or receiving a GED;
6. I will file an application to become a permanent resident within 30 days after becoming eligible to do so.
7. I have registered with the Selective Service System. (This applies to all males 18 and older. You must submit a copy of proof of selective service registration. This can be obtained from your local post office).
